All prices are per edition. 6x & 12x rates require a contract and are to be run consecutively. Contract discount pricing on front and back pages can be earned by customer running either a quarter, half or full page ad inside the papers in editions where they are not scheduled on front or back due to choice or availability. *Tehama Trader Publishing uses the latest route information available from our list supplier. Due to rapidly changing route information, some households may be missed on any given mailing. Mail delivery is to households only and excludes most businesses and post office boxes. Rate structure is based on mailing a minimum of 11,700 pieces & street stands delivery of approx 7000 papers. Postal 3602 forms will be available for review after the actual mailing date.

Terms are COD unless customer has an open account in good standing. Past due accounts are subject to 3% per month late charge (minimum $3.00). Accounts more than 70 days are subject to $25.00 final demand fee and/or $25 collection processing fee and all costs of collection. All copy is subject to the approval of the Publisher. Prices are subject to change without notice.
